

Palomar College Child Development Department presents

An Evening with “Babies”

Documentary Screening & Expert Panel Discussion

Hosted by the Palomar College CHDV Club

BABIES

Please join the Child Development department for a screening of the acclaimed 2010 documentary, Babies. “Directed by award-winning filmmaker Thomas Balmès, from an original idea by producer Alain Chabat, Babies simultaneously follows four babies around the world – from birth to first steps” (www.focusfeatures.com).

The film will be followed by a panel discussion featuring experts in their fields– cultural anthropology, infant development, lactation and childbirth education, and pediatric health.

Mark your calendars and please plan on attending this fascinating and insightful event!
